FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A "COLLEGE" AND "UNIVERSITY"?

In the United States, the terms "college" and "university" are often used interchangeably. In the United States, both colleges and universities may offer Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctoral degrees. The degrees offered by universities and colleges are honored in the same way by international businesses, organizations, and schools. Edgewood College offers programs at the Bachelor, Master, and Doctoral levels. We do not offer trade or technical programs.

WHAT DOES "LIBERAL ARTS" MEAN?

In receiving a liberal arts education from Edgewood College, undergraduate students take courses in a variety of subjects as well as specializing in one or two areas of concentration. A liberal arts education prepares students for success in a rapidly-changing world.

WHAT MAKES EDGEWOOD COLLEGE AN IDEAL INSTITUTION FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS TO EARN THEIR DEGREE?

Edgewood College is proud to offer small class sizes and frequent opportunities for hands-on learning. Our small campus allows our students to be an active part of a close-knit community and to have easy access to resources, internships, and support services. Our low student-faculty ratio gives students the chance to interact directly with faculty members and to receive an individualized, values-based education.

Edgewood College recognizes the value of a global education and provides a welcoming and supportive environment for all students. Edgewood College's Center for Global Education facilitates a three-day orientation for all new international students and offers special services and ongoing support especially for international students.

To learn more about the Center for Global Education, please visit <http://globaleducation.edgewood.edu>.

Edgewood College is an accredited, four-year private liberal arts college located in Madison, Wisconsin. Founded in 1927 by the Dominican Catholic Sisters of Sinsinawa, Edgewood College is committed to the values of truth, justice, compassion, partnership and community. In addition to conferring Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees in more than 40 academic areas, Edgewood College also offers programs at the Master's and Doctoral levels.

FINANCIAL AID

Some scholarships are available to first-time freshmen (students who have never attended a college or university). International students with F-1 and J-1 visas may work on campus 20 hours per week while school is in session, 40 hours per week during school breaks. As a private institution, tuition is the same for all students, including international students.

RESIDENCE LIFE & HOUSING

All first-time freshmen (students who have never attended a college or university) are required to live in on-campus housing for their first two years of study at Edgewood College. Undergraduate transfer students are encouraged to live on campus as well. Living on campus allows a smooth transition to college life and research has shown that students who live on campus feel more connected to the college community and perform better academically.

With furnished single, double, or triple occupancy rooms and suites, Edgewood College offers different options for on-campus living. Each residence hall has a full kitchen, laundry facilities, and internet access. There are two cafeterias on campus serving a wide variety of food. A dietician is available for consultation and special care is taken to ensure that food options are available for students on restricted diets.

MADISON, WI

Edgewood College is located in the city of Madison, the capital of the state of Wisconsin. Madison is 128 kilometers from Milwaukee, WI and 238 kilometers from Chicago, IL. There are regular buses to Madison from Milwaukee and Chicago.

With a population of 205,000, Madison is a vibrant college town with an abundance of parks and green spaces. Madison is home to the state government and over 12,000 business and health care facilities which offer exceptional opportunities for internships and jobs.

Located on the wooded shores of Lake Wingra, Edgewood College gives students the best of both worlds: the friendly community and individual attention of a small campus, combined with the opportunities found in larger cities. Edgewood College's 55-acre campus sits in a safe and scenic residential area within walking distance of shopping, restaurants, and recreational and cultural opportunities.

Madison is well-known for being a safe, friendly, and environmentally-conscious place to live. Here are some of Madison's recent awards and rankings:

- Madison Rated One of Five Perfect College Towns (Smarter Travel, August 2007)
- One of the 10 Best Towns in America (Outside, October 2011)
- One of the Nation's 10 Best Cities in Which to Live and Work (Kiplinger's, May 2009)

- Most Educated City (Men's Health, September 2011)

CLIMATE

The state of Wisconsin enjoys four distinct seasons with temperatures ranging from -15 degrees Celsius in January and February when snow is frequent to 29 degrees Celsius in July and August. The diversity of weather conditions allows Edgewood College students to enjoy a wide variety of seasonal activities from skiing and ice skating in winter to water-skiing and swimming in the summer! Students should be prepared with appropriate clothing for all seasons.

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE (ESL)

For students who wish to improve their English language skills before starting college-level work, Edgewood College works closely with the Wisconsin English as a Second Language Institute (www.wesli.com) and the Madison English as a Second Language School (www.mesls.org). Successful completion of study at WESLI or MESLS fulfills the English proficiency requirement for full-time, undergraduate level study at Edgewood College. Edgewood College does not offer a comprehensive ESL program.
