Master of Arts in Education - English as a Second Language License Completion Program for Experienced Teachers

A PROGRAM DESIGNED FOR WORKING PROFESSIONALS

- Face to face meetings are offered on evenings and weekends to accommodate busy schedules.
- Licensure courses offered in both face to face or blended online classroom settings.
- Begin the program in the fall, spring, or even summer semester.
- Move through the program at your own pace.

EDGEWOOD COLLEGE QUALITY

- Courses are taught by academically and professionally qualified faculty accomplished in their fields of expertise.
- The classroom provides a challenging environment that is focused and supportive.
- You will have the opportunity to work in a team-based setting that mirrors the professional settings of the work environment.
- Edgewood College has been recognized by U.S. News & World Report as a “Best National University,” among “America’s Best Colleges” by Forbes, and a “Best in the Midwest College” by Princeton Review.

The MSN The ESL Program at Edgewood College prepares teachers with the knowledge, skills, and dispositions that allow diverse learners to thrive. Through a teacher-as inquirer stance, instructors aim to empower teacher candidates for leadership and collaboration in their school environments. Content reflects a functional view of language and language learning, linking practices with a broader social justice agenda. The program provides a range of opportunities designed to meet individual career goals for educators. Whether you are seeking a full Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (DPI) English as a Second Language (ESL) license, or an ultimate Masters of Arts in ESL, we have a program that meets your needs.

My ESL and bilingual courses taught me not only the mechanics of how to work with bilingual students, but crucially, we deeply explored why our work matters in terms of equity and justice through critical conversations and activities. As a result, I am an educator who applies a strong social justice lens to my work, and continues to seek personal and professional growth and impact on equity.”
